

Beltway Bub: Tripping on Truth in the 1960s 70s (Paperback)

By MR Warwick J Knox

Warwickknox, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Beltway Bub is the story of a rebellious boy from Minnesota who eventually finds himself losing control within the wave of the 1960s and 70s. Bucking his Christian faith, he joins the hippie counterculture and turns to alcohol, nearly drowning in it. When the establishment fails to cure Bub, who s found himself in the clutches of the law, he takes matters into his own hands, but . what follows is a wild and twisted ride! Yes, Bub ascribes the psychology he thinks he needs in order to change the way he thinks, but as he repeated fails to trouble with the law, he identifies with that old saying, Rome wasn t built in a day. Bub s situation sets the stage as his family moves to Washington DC in 1967. He s attended Catholic schools in three different states and now he s looking forward to public school. Street wise, by now, he works his way into the biggest clique to enjoy the perks and avoid harassment. So far, so good, until his family moves once again. Although his ploy had worked,...
