Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .William Byron Hillman has filled many roles in the entertainment industry as an actor, singer/songwriter, screenwriter, producer, director, filmmaker and published author of twelve books. In the early days of soap operas, he joined the cast of Days of our Lives for two years and later enjoyed TV shows like Bewitched and big budget studios films such as Ice Station Zebra. He has worked at all the major studios and television networks and currently is partners in an independent motion picture and television production company. He is planning a sequel to the worldwide sensation Quigley, and is busy drafting yet another novel. He is the author of the best seller Veronique and Murray as well as the hit Rollie Kemp thriller series. The one achievement he is most proud of is how he and his wife found her adopted birth parents after a thirty plus year search. Dream Searcher is his story.
