Story one: The Castle orphans. How often does he visit you? added Watson, producing his pipe from his pocket. He searched the same pocket for a match, then lit the device. He visits every week, and every few nights. He likes to sneak in the window and take things back to his castle! The small girl played with the little tiger upon her knee. Story Two: The Curse of a Native. Adams had violently slapped Kimilu so hard that the sheer force had floored the waiter and the usually humble waiter had lost it. He had stood up and angrily talked back at him in his native language which Adams did not understand. But Butler had lived in Africa for over two decades and he understood every word. His translation confirmed by other native workers who witnessed the drama. It was chilling to say the least. Story Three: Death in the Tropics of an English Explorer. And I suppose you expect me to solve the whole case on that information alone? Surely there is something more you can give me. Replied Holmes; quickly losing interest in the subject. Mycroft continued, Suppose I said that it is possible, while studying the lives of an indigenous tribe known as the Koburu, that the great explorer, Sir Hughes Blakefield, was murdered in cold blood, poisoned with his evening scotch. Story Four: The Hex of a Gypsy Woman. he raised his disheveled head from his hands. The face was that of my friend, but the expression it bore was unrecognizable. He was indeed out of countenance. All that I have seen and all that I know, dear...
