

The Convert (A Fiction)

By K. P. Rath

2016. PaperBack. Condition: New. 302 ABOUT THE BOOK : -This is a book of pure fiction. The characters are drawn from the poor section of the society. Enlivened with adventure, suspense and romance, the story moves on to expose the futility of greed and wickedness and uphold the values of pure love, affection and integrity. A circus arena, a bank robbery, chase in the jungle and a haunted house with hair raising experiences would hold the readers spell bound till the end. ABOUT THE AUTHOR :- K.P. Rath is an electrical engineer and graduated from Banaras Hindu University, in the fifties. During his service in various capacities, he was engaged in important electrical installations and retired in the nineties. He is an active Fellow of The Institution of Engineers (India) and for his contribution to technologies he has been felicitated by the fraternity. He has settled in Bhubaneswar with his wife and family. Books of 'Short Stories', 'Historical Events of Odissa', 'Translation of the Poems, Stray Birds By Tagore', 'Bhagvad Gita' 'Journey of an Engineer' (an autobiography), written by him are published and widely received by public. 'The Convert' is his first novel. He is already working on his second one....
